

PRESBYTERY TO END ITS SESSION TODAY

Churchmen Who Have Been in Convention at Alexandria Report Success for Year.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., April 22.—The presbytery of the Potomac, which has been in session since Tuesday night, will conclude its work this afternoon. This morning reports were read from churches, Sunday schools and church societies, which showed last year's work successful. Graham Machen, of Franklin Street Church, Baltimore, was examined for licensure for the ministry. After hearing his trial sermon last night he was licensed and a letter of transfer given him to the New Brunswick presbytery, of New Brunswick, N. J., where he is to be an assistant professor at Princeton University.

With a special jury from Fairfax county the suit of Clarence J. Vile, an employee of the Government Printing Office in Washington, against the city council of Alexandria, for $10,000 damages, was commenced in the corporation court, Judge L. C. Barley presiding. The case may go to the jury this afternoon.

With a total of $7,702 subscribed in the first three days of the canvass, the committee in charge of collecting the $50,000 fund for the Alexandria Hospital is confident that one-third of the amount will be raised at the end of the first week. Much of the time since the campaign started has been given up to educational work, and the subscriptions received up to today have been voluntary. The subcommittee met last night and decided to make public the names of all subscribers next Monday.

James Bland, sixty-two, died last night at his home 512 North Fairfax street. He leaves a wife and several children. He will be buried Saturday at Occoquan, Va.

The funeral of Miss Ruth Edmunds will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Services will be conducted by the Rev. H. J. Cutler.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet tonight at 8 o'clock.

Miss Nellie L. Caton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Caton and Russell A. Wolf were married yesterday at the residence of St. Mary's Catholic Church by the Rev. H. J. Cutler, pastor.

Judge L. C. Barley today granted an absolute divorce to Mrs. Elsie Mae Satterfield from William R. Satterfield, on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney H. Noel Garner.

In police court today George E. Sacks, of Washington, was fined $3 for carrying concealed weapons.

Coburn Players Produce Mackey's Bird Masque

Under almost perfect conditions, from the scenic point of view, the Coburn Players produced Mackey's "Bird Masque," "Sanctuary," in the open air at Twin Oaks, Woodley lane, last evening, for the benefit of the Montessori Educational Association of the District.

The play has unusual interest for the people of Washington because President Wilson's daughter, Miss Eleanor, appeared in the first production, which was given last September at Meridian, New Hampshire, in the part that Mrs. Coburn took last night.

The story has a particular appeal to bird lovers, as it deals with the preservation of birds. Mr. Coburn played "Bark," a plum-hunter. Mrs. Coburn was "Ornis," the bird spirit. The play was well received by a large audience.

This afternoon "The Taming of the Shrew" will be produced, as part celebration of the anniversary of the birth of Shakespeare. Tonight Euripides' "Iphigenia in Tauris" will be given. This is said to be the most romantic of the Greek plays, and will be elaborately produced.

Taft Deplores War, But Stands by the President

Stopping for a minute or two yesterday on his way to Hampton, Va., to deliver an address, former President William H. Taft gave his unqualified support to President Wilson in the course the Executive is pursuing in the Mexican trouble.

"I deeply deplore the killing and wounding of our marines and blue-jackets at Vera Cruz," said Mr. Taft. "It is unnecessary for me to say with what abhorrence I view war, but I am heartily supporting the President in this matter. It is the duty of every American to stand by Mr. Wilson on an occasion like this, when we have been involved in a quarrel with another country."

Anacostia, Hyattsville

ANACOSTIA.

Three exhibition games are to be played in Anacostia by the teams in the Potomac Baseball League this week. Yesterday the Government Hospital team defeated the Congress Heights team. The Eastern and Lincoln teams will play tomorrow, and on Saturday the Steel Plant will play the Dreadnoughts.

Miss Agnes Reagan has been chosen as president of the Sodality of Children of Mary of St. Teresa Church, Anacostia, for the second term. This means that she will be "queen" in the May procession, to be held the latter part of next month by the church.

Three brush fires in this section yesterday kept the three fire engine companies busy during the afternoon. The fires were at the dumping grounds in Fairlawn, in the woods near McCabe's greenhouses, in Haveremey park, and in the rear of Bradbury's store in Pennsylvania avenue.

The Anacostia Federation for Social Service announced yesterday that it had secured 40 signatures to its petition, which will be presented to the excise board, asking that the suburb be declared a residential zone, and thereby close all of the saloons and wholesale liquor establishments in the suburb.

The committee of the Men's Club of Emmanuel Church, which will have charge of the "country circus" to be given on the evenings of May 20, 21, and 22, in the parish hall in V street, met last evening and further plans were made. The entire club will meet next Monday evening to complete the plans.

The employees of the Government Hospital for the Insane will entertain their friends tonight at a dance in Hitchcock Hall, at the institution.

The town flower garden, to be located at Nichols avenue and U street, is said to be a certainty, because of the hearty response of citizens to the request for subscriptions. A special committee, consisting of Maurice Otterback, chairman; William L. Quaid, and William J. Lauder, was appointed by President Burr, of the Anacostia association and this committee has stated that it is believed the funds will reach a point where the undertaking will be possible.

HYATTSTVILLE.

The Riverdale Orchestra last night gave its second concert in the lecture room of the Riverdale Presbyterian Church.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the Hyattsville Presbyterian Church, will give a shad dinner tomorrow night.

The county commissioners have reappointed Millard Thorne as transfer clerk, and Endolph Goddard as constable in Marlboro district.

The Current Topics Club of Riverdale met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Steinmeyer, and discussed domestic science, under direction of Mrs. James E. Place.

Members of Company F, First Maryland Infantry, are busy preparing for the inspection Tuesday evening.

Get Check on Incomes Of All Stockholders

In order that the income tax collectors may have a check on every individual subject to the tax, the Treasury Department has mailed corporations, joint stock companies, associations, and insurance companies, blank forms on which they are required to give the names of all stockholders, and the amount of their holdings, as well as a list of officers and employees whose salaries are subject to tax.

Nesbit Tells Students Principles of Insurance

Charles F. Nesbitt, District superintendent of insurance, spoke at Business High School this morning on "General Principles and Effect of Life Insurance." It was the first of a series of lectures to be given under the auspices of the National Underwriters Association.

Other lectures to be given are: April 30, "Life Insurance as a Profession," by Dr. Lee K. Frankel, vice president Metropolitan Life Insurance Company; May 7, "History and Evolution of Life Insurance," by Frederick L. Hoffman, statistician, Prudential Life Insurance Company, and May 14, "Specific Services of Life Insurance With Various Policy Forms," by J. H. Jeffries, of the home office of the Penn Mutual Insurance Company, of Philadelphia.

Citizens of Rockville, Md., are proud of Rear Admiral Charles J. Badger, commander of the great vessels whose guns poured shells into Vera Cruz, and the number entered this year far exceeds that number.

Horse Show Officials Seeking More Stalls

Having disposed of all stable accommodations within the show grounds, officials of the National Capital Horse Show are now endeavoring to secure stalls at nearby livery stables for the horses of late-coming exhibitors who will take part in the show that opens May 2. The horse show association can care for 125 horses on the grounds, but the number entered this year far exceeds that number.

The saddle and jumping classes, however, will continue to exceed in number of entrants other events upon the program. Mrs. H. S. Matlock, of Philadelphia, who comes to the Washington show for the first time, has entered a widely known saddle and combination mare, "Barbour Queen." H. W. Herling and Son, of Nokesville, Va., will also bring a string of hunters which has proved successful at the Virginia show, "Le Roy," "Sea Light," "High Over," and "Peg O' My Heart" are included in this stable.
